In Life at Mimosa Lake: The Story of the Winter Visitor, the neighbors at Mimosa Lake are dealing with the great recession and are discouraged. God sends hope through their natural environment. River Ivery and her neighbors find the strength to go on when an unexpected bald eagle (never seen around this area before) and his family fly in to winter at the lake area. The story is filled with faith, community, hope and humor twinged with bits of philosophy from these quirky, independent souls. This is the first novel of the Mimosa Lake Series. The series follows the neighbors living at Mimosa Lake as they explore their faith. This book examines faith during hard times.
